You have pets, we have answers!

"My dog ate chocolate, I don't know what to do, but I know its toxic!"

Call

Pick up the phone and call as soon as you are worried, and we can help instantly! Our veterinary experts are standing by 24/7, live, to take your call. No matter how big or small the question, our experts are standing by!

"My cat won't use her litter box anymore, I'm sick of cleaning up urine!"

Email

Need a detailed response? Just write us an email! You can even send pictures or videos. Our team will respond, sometimes with articles or additional resources, to help you figure out how to get things back to status quo.

"I'm bringing a new puppy into the home, and we already have a cat, what can I do to train them to get along?"

Chat

From your computer or mobile device, start a live chat for instant support on how to introduce Rover to Fluffy with relative ease! And when Fluffy decides she likes Rover's food, we will be around to help you figure that one out too!
